

F&D Woodfired Italian Kitchen now open in Longwood

Second location serving woodfired pizza, classic Italian dishes

LONGWOOD, Fla. (June 23, 2020) — F&D Woodfired Italian Kitchen is firing up its famed oven and serving craveable pizza and Italian favorites to the community of Longwood.

The eatery's newest location is now open for lunch and dinner.

F&D Woodfired Italian Kitchen was founded in Orlando's Hourglass District in 2018 and has since grown quickly into an Orlando favorite. This spurred the development of the second location in Longwood, located in the old Bayridge Sushi spot at 1000 W. State Road 434.

"We're incredibly excited to open the doors on our newest concept," said Charly Robinson, owner and founder of the F&D family of restaurants. "We've been getting inquiries from fans every day as they drive past the location and watch the development, so we know they're excited, too. We look forward to bringing our passion for great food to a new community in Central Florida."

F&D Woodfired Italian Kitchen is known for serving Neapolitan woodfired pizza and classic Italian dishes, including pasta from Trevi Pasta in College Park. The eatery blends a hip, inviting atmosphere with friendly service and an emphasis on quality, natural ingredients.

In addition to an outstanding menu of favorites, F&D Woodfired Italian Kitchen offers daily specials, carryout deals and weekend brunch, as well as an impressive selection of beer and wine and wine-based cocktails. The restaurant also offers vegan options.
